Land for Sale.
A tract or parcel of Land, containing between two and three hundred acres, on the north side of Occoquan, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles west of Occoquan mills. It is well watered with falling springs, it is also well timbered, and the great quantity of fur timber it renders it the more valuable to any person in the country. This land of the middle soil, and produces corn, wheat or any other grain tolerable well—there is about 100 acres cleared and in good fence. The improvements are a dwelling house & other out houses, a good apple orchard of about sixty trees.
ALSO,
One other tract in the same county, thirteen miles of Occoquan, lying on Andy Run, containing 47 acres—it is in cultivation and under good fence, the remainder heavily timbered. There is on the premises an old framed dwelling house and out houses and an apple orchard of eighty bearing trees.
Any person inclining to purchase can view the premises and know the terms applying to the subscriber who lives near them.

Charles County, Maryland.
FOR sale, by private contract, the valuable tract of land called Detfield, situated near the mouth of Port Bacco Creek. This tract of land yields to none in this county for fertility of soil, healthfulness of situation & convenience to markets. The land being in the whole about 1600 acres, is now conveniently divided into a few farms, let to good tenants for more than 1000 dollars per annum, for the present year only; it may be divided to suit purchasers. There is besides, houses for tenants, etc. etc. a good two story frame house, with four large rooms on a floor, and four back chambers; the water is excellent, and the site of the dwelling house is in the barn, corn house and granary are newly built. More than 100 acres of this land is fit for timothy, with which grass a few acres are at this time set.
The farmer and the man of wealth may here find health and amusement, combined with great profit, land in Charles county being at least 50 per cent below their average value. There is no money in the state of Maryland where lands of fer to the cultivator equal advantages.
Also, two other tracts of land called the Grange and the Mill Farm, near the town of Port Tobacco, in a healthy and genteel neighborhood, containing together about 1000 acres of excellent timothy land; a large portion of which is proper for timothy meadow, of which grass there is at this time 12 or 14 acres, and as much more ready to lay down. On the Grange Farm there is a large and elegant mansion with all necessary offices, an extensive commodious garden, filled with the choicest flowers, and fruits of the best qualities in great abundance, excellent water, and proverbial for its health. In a residence of 22 years, no members of the family of the present proprietors has ever been attacked by an intermittent or fall fever of any kind.— Should it be desired by the purchaser, about 800 acres more might be added to these farms, in which case the quantity of acres advertised would amount to about 2600. Terms of sale made known on application to the subscriber.
H. NEWMAN.
If the above lands are not sold previous to the 19th March next, they will on that day be offered at public auction, without reserve.

Thirty Dollars Reward.

Ranaway from the subscriber, living in Rector Town, Fauquier County Virginia, on Sunday 16th instant.

A Negro Man,

named Emanuel, of a common dark complexion, about five feet eight or nine inches high, more than common full lips, and rather a hoarse voice, and somewhat a down look. His clothing when he went away, was a new pair of pantaloons; white wool and cotton twilled, and an old flax tow shirt, his coat old and frayed, made of tow and yarn, rather of yellowish color; his jacket striped of manufactured cloth, much worn, a strong pair of clasp down shoes, somewhat worn, and an old pair of three quartered boots, annexed or fixed to them, an old wool hat with a tolerable large brim; this apparel may be changed by other garments, if he had or could get any. The above reward of thirty dollars will be paid, if taken up out of the State and secured in any goal, so that I get him again, or ten dollars if taken up in this State & delivered to me, or secured in any goal so that I get him.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

GODOLPHIN No. II.

SIR—In my last number I attributed to the scribblers on city politics who have lately figured in the columns of the Herald, only baseness of design, and vulgarity of execution. Their labors of Friday prove that this allowance is too narrow, and that they are not wanting in that subtlety and deceit which familiarity with clandestine wickedness sometimes imparts to the dullest minds. Anxious to dismiss from the government of the town individuals whose love of good morals made them their enemies, and to supply the vacancy by turpitude congenial to their own, they find it necessary to relinquish for a moment their favorite system of palpable falsehood, and to resort to artful misrepresentation.

To accomplish their purpose of governing the town, they endeavor to enlist the feelings of some respectable citizens who have inadvertently been subjected to the penalties of the corporation laws. With the magic wand of sympathy they beckon into their circle every transgressor, and he obtains their confidence in proportion to the offences he has committed, and to those which he is ready to perpetrate. Scarcely has the novice undergone the ceremony of initiation before he is dispatched on some embassy of slander. No impertinent suggestions of conscience interpose an obstacle to his progress, and the hopes of office alleviate his toils.

The resentment of this formidable junta seems particularly directed against three of the members from the third ward, Col. Denale, Mr. Hoffman and Mr. Smith. The long residence and public employments of these individuals in town, have fully developed their characters and have so clearly manifested their uprightness and ability that any commendation of them at this late day would be superfluous. It is not the least of their glories that they are censured by such men as "Hard Times" and his colleagues.

The fifth number of "Hard Times" destroys every doubt which charity may have entertained of the motives of its author, and proves that no sense of shame or fear of detection deters him from his purpose. The odds are indeed in his favor. If discovered he will not, for an obvious reason, lose his character, and if not discovered he may get an office. To show that the present council men are unworthy of their stations he enumerates the expenses of the corporation, and begins with the mayor. On this subject it is sufficient for me to remark, that the fines for breach of the laws, receipts for exhibition, licenses, &c. paid into the treasury by that officer during the last year, exceeded his salary.

Before the year 1815, the salary of the clerk of the market was $250. During that year it was increased to $300, and consequently not by the present council. The duties of this officer are, to appear at the market house every morning in the year at day light; to remain there till 9 o'clock in summer and 10 in winter; to weigh all articles brought to him; to preserve order during market hours; to prevent sellers from practising impositions; to publish the assize of bread; and to perform the duties of sealer and adjuster of weights. For these duties the salary of three hundred dollars is surely not too great.

I noticed on Saturday the salaries of clerk and auditor and superintendent of police. I come now to those of constables, which are only $200 more than they have been for several years. The council found it necessary to make this addition, as the previous salary offered no inducement to those officers to desert their ordinary employments and confine themselves to the police duties. But "Hard Times" and his confederates look on a vigilant constable with an evil eye. He offers unwelcome interruptions to their midnight proceedings and lawless pleasures.

The council are next inveighed against for allowing the Lancasterian schoolmaster $600. "Tho' I shall not confer with "Hard Times" on the value of a good education, and its connexion with moral worth, let me ask his learned associates if $600 a year from the public treasury be too liberal a disbursement for educating poor and fatherless children. This question I propose to them as a mere theoretical enquiry, being aware that their lives and practice do not very forcibly illustrate the benefits of mental culture.

The next item in which the council are charged with wasting the public money is, their charitable provision for the poor, which is set down at $3000. But surely when accident or sickness, or age, deprives any part of our population of the ability to support themselves, it becomes the duty, and I believe it is the inclination, of their fellow citizens to afford to the moderate pecuniary aid. As long as this opinion obtains in the community, an alms house will be requisite, and of course an officer must be employed to superintend it. This individual must remain the whole year at the hospital and attend to the indigent and vicious who may be committed to his care. Can any suitable person be persuaded to undertake a responsibility so unpleasant in its nature, and which necessarily withdraws him from every other employment for a less sum than 500 dollars?

The objection to the watchmen was urged, I believe, with more sincerity than any precedent one. The vexatious checks offered by these officers to the nightly votaries of the gaming table and the brothel, naturally induced a wish among "Hard Times," A. B. &c. not only that their wages should be diminished, but that their functions should cease.

Messrs. Mandell and Philips, the two collectors of the taxes receive for their trouble, 940 dollars between them. "Hard Times" intimated that a friend of his would perform this duty for 700 dollars, but the public know this writer too well to be propitiated by any candidate by his recommendation. The fidelity with which the present collectors discharge their duty will not dispose their fellow-citizens to hazard any new experiment.

The regulators of the streets are also submitted to the examination of this financial antagonist. If this acute projector had read the law he would have seen that they receive no annual salary, but a certain daily sum for every day they are employed. If engaged in public business they are paid by the corporation; if in private business by the individual employing them.

Since the year 1812, the expenses of the corporation affairs have amounted to $4050. They have been augmented during the present year, by the addition of $1550, in which sum are included 750, for three additional watchmen. The increase population and business of the town fully ascertained that six watchmen were too few. The appointment of more was added two cents to the tax of each individual, and this has been charged upon the council as an act of prodigality and oppression. To relieve the town from this mighty burden, the laws are to be repealed, and new modelled. The watchmen are too numerous, and 300 dollars must be saved by cashiering three of them. The lamp lighter will so soon become rich by the enormous salary of 300 dollars, that the streets must continue dark rather than so dangerous a precedent should be introduced. The inconvenience of having muddy streets should be preferred to paying 600 dollars to the scavenger for cleaning streets, which form twenty or thirty squares. But these amendments apply correspond with the characters of our reformers. Darkness and dirt are their natural elements.

Next comes the formidable "Amor Patriae." He deigns to bend his mighty mind to the drudgery of detail, and undertakes to state the debt due from the town. With his usual contempt for veracity, he would insinuate that the present council created this debt. By an accidental deviation to the truth, he states, however, that 7000 of this debt has for years been due to the Bank of Alexandria. But speedily returning to his proper character, he censures the present council for 14,500 dollars of due bills, although these bills were issued in 1814, and for the public accommodation, with regard to the item of 23,340 dollars, for the current expenses of the year. "Amor Patriae" knows, or at least ought to have known, that this was the probable estimate of these expenses. The council knowing their inability to appropriate money by a simple order, applied to each object of ordinary expense, a sum sufficient for that object. It is matter of public notoriety, that the above mentioned sum of 23,340 dollars, has not been expended.

As an instance of this, it may be mentioned that part of it, 200 dollars, appropriated to cleaning the docks, is still in the treasury. The 300 dollars appropriated to repair town property, is also not expended, and but a small part of the sum of 500 dollars applied to the board of regulators has been used. If the 500 dollars appropriated to the repair of foot ways, and the removal of nuisances in cases of default on the part of individuals has been expended, it has either been refunded by the persons bound for it, or they will refund it. The sum of 1000 dollars for expenses which may be authorized by council has not been expended. In regard to the sum of 5,300 dollars, forming a part of the 23,340 dollars, appropriated for the local expenses of the four ward, it is believed that the greater part of it still remains in the treasury.

Since these facts, so satisfactorily confute the gross mis-statements made on Friday, let it be asked what additional expenses the present council have authorized? They have built the market house—an edifice which will produce a reward more than equivalent to the legal interest of the money disbursed for its erection. This was a preceeding impudently demanded by the public expenditure of the public wishes. But the taxes of "Amor Patriae," and the rest of the "black spirits and white, blue spirits and grey" who participate his factionists, may be inferred from their vociferations about the flagstones. Because these stones have been placed at the intersection of some streets, omitted at those of others, the mayors, councilmen, police officers, &c. must be branded with public approbation! As our adventures are nowise trammelled by the shackles of conscience and truth, they might surely have selected a more plausible topic of invective than such silly gables as this—Another such bungle, and I shall be thought too liberal in allowing them the praise of cunning, how ever humble in character and degree. But a present vanity makes me desirous that they should possess something which resembles a quality of mind, lest I should be disappointed even by victory.

These very salutary laws that prohibit keeping shops open on Sundays, and retailing liquors without a tavern license, were passed during the mayoralty of Col. Peyton, whom "Hard Times" has already commended as an evangelic and disinterested officer. We are acquainted with that gentleman, I should sympathize with him at receiving such suspicious praise.

The scope of my intention does not require any notice of the article in your Saturday's paper signed "A Mechanic." The statements of that writer are substantially the same with those already refuted. His ribaldry has not even the merit of novelty, it being fabricated at the same forge which had previously furnished the clumsy and shapeless weapons of his colleagues.

I believe, Mr. Editor, that I have fully disproved the assertions of these petty politicians, who have so long worried your patience and that of your readers. The plain exposition of facts which I have offered is sufficient to convince all who self interest has not wedded to error at the present council merit the general confidence, and that their legislation has been wise and moral. A discriminating public will not surely forget the services of their faithful agents, and transfer their honor to a faction and unprincipled cabal. The efforts of the former to subvert the interests of virtue and to punish prodigality, however offensive to the vicious will, as I believe, endure them to the honest part of their fellow citizens. That this part forms an overpowering majority will, I doubt not, be evidenced by their suffrages this day.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

March 1.

A proposition to amend the constitution for a particular purpose was yesterday laid before the House by General Harrison, not to be immediately acted upon, but to lie on the table to be considered by the members. The object of it is to give Congress power to provide for training the militia; according to the discipline prescribed for that purpose, and subjecting them whilst engaged in that service, to the rules and regulations prescribed for the government of the militia, when in the military service of the U. States, and also to provide for teaching in the primary schools and other seminaries of learning in the several states, the system of discipline prescribed for the militi-I regard this as a measure of the most profound, nay vital importance.

A resolution to employ Mr. Trumbull, the artist, to paint a fifth picture additional to the four already ordered, commemorative of the most important events of the revolution. This fifth picture, if painted, is to commemorate the taking of Major Andre.
The resolution was read and ordered to lie on the table.

An attempt was yesterday made to ship the corps of Marines of its old commander, but proved abortive. A bill to abolish the present command, and to place the corps under a major was quashed by an amendment offered by Mr. Pleasant and adopted by the House, which fixes definitely the peace establishment of that corps to consist of a lieutenant colonel commandant, nine captains, a proportionate number of lieutenants and non-commissioned officers and seven hundred and fifty privates; the supernumerary officers and soldiers to be discharged with three months additional

March 3.

The House of Representatives continued in session on Saturday till the hour of eleven o'clock at night, with the deduction of an hour's recess for the purpose of dining, between half after five and half after six o'clock. It was all day however, as it had been for two or three days before, a gallop on full whip and spur, to get through the mass of business which but for the itch of speculating and the important purpose of playing the orator for the satisfaction of their constituents and themselves, the house might have despatched weeks ago.
As it is, I fear some things will remain undone to the material injury of families and individuals, and that many an aching heart will have cause to deplore the day that—and—and—and—and some score blanks besides took it into their heads that they were fit to be orators. Of this however, more hereafter.

No part of the business of Saturday was of a character either amusing or information—unless indeed it were a sally of Timothy Pickens's upon certain menstrosities in the embellishments projected for our capitol. An appropriation bill for a considerable sum for that purpose was before the house, and the old gentleman made use of the occasion it afforded to deliver his opinion, and in it a most admirable piece of sound, judicious criticism on some of the works of our chief architect, and his subordinate artists. Besides the plain good sense and natural taste, with which his observations were replete, there was so much poignant satire and humour in them, that I will endeavour to give them to you in the best manner my memory will enable me. As near as I can recollect he said as follows.

"Before I give my vote for this large appropriation I should wish to hear from the chairman of the committee, whether the figures intended by the architect to represent the several states are really to make part of the embellishments of the capitol, and as such to be comprehended in this provision, or whether those preposterous images are to be laid aside. They are female figures. That intended to represent New-Hampshire, has a fish in her hands. Now sir, it so happens that, of all the fish taken at sea by the people of New-England, forty-nine in fifty, perhaps ninety-nine in a hundred are caught by the people of Massachusetts. The female representative of Massachusetts has a boy by her side, to represent the district of Maine. The lady of Vermont has a raw calf skin thrown over her shoulders, the pate falls on the left shoulder, and two of the legs hang dangling from her bosom. I do not know with what emblem the lady of Virginia will be exhibited; perhaps with a Buckskin over her shoulder; whether with the horns on her head, or like the calf's pate of Vermont, resting on the left shoulder. I cannot tell—but no doubt a pair of the legs will be suspended from her breast.
I remember some former curious devices of this same artist which it may not be amiss to mention. In the ves-titure of the North wing there were pillars represented as supporting an immense weight of stone. Instead of fluted shafts, their surfaces were formed into perpendicular rounds.
When a stone cutter had been employed upon them for a great part of a winter, behold these rounds, cut into joints, become corn-stalks, and the capitals were decorated with ears of corn. I intimated at that time, to Mr.
Latrobe, the impropriety of this device. Corn-stalks supporting a mass of stone! but (replied the architect) observe they have a band round them, still said I to him, they are only a bundle of corn-stalks."

"In an apartment adjoining that where the Italian statuary was moulding in clay, the models for the female figures I have mentioned, some stone cutters were at work upon blocks of stone intended for capitals of another set of pillars, which capitals they were ornamenting with leaves intended to represent tobacco leaves, from which I conclude the shafts of these pillars are to be composed of tobacco stems."

"Mr. Speaker, you must recollect the stone gallery in the senate chamber; there were several male figures beneath their hands raised to support it. These figures were not colossal, nor Herculean, but even if they had no weight to bear up the very attitude, with hands stretched out, and permanently elevated high as their heads was enough to give pain to the beholder."

"Sir, I have seen in a printed report on the public buildings, that blocks of marble have been ordered from Italy to be wrought into those female figures. The gallery is now to rest apparently on the heads of those ladies; but I cannot vote for those reputations state emblems are swept away."

Mr. Peters replied that the commissioner informed him those emblems should be laid aside.

The British packet Chichester, arrived at Falmouth on the 8th of

The Severn Frigate, returned to Portsmouth from the Mediterranean on the 12 of December, with 2550 was dispatched by Lord Exmouth from Algiers with the restored ran-somed money and slaves, to Sicily

Bonaparte.—The latest London paper, states, that accounts had been received from St. Helena to the 16th of October, Napoleon continued in good health, but was very sullen and dissatisfied. It is stated that in consequence of his having conceived a personal dislike to Sir Hudson Lowe, even the enforcement of the common necessary regulations for his safe custody, was a perpetual subject of complaint and disquietude with him. He had not accomplished the sale of his plate, the emblems had all been beaten off, & the whole was packed up in readiness to be sent to a London Market. It was rumoured, that Count Poniatowski, his Polish attendant, was to be sent from the island, he having been discovered tampering with the soldiers stationed near Bonaparte's residence.

The London Gazette contain an offer of 500l for the apprehension of James Watson Junior, against whom there is a violent suspicion that he willfully and feloniously attempted to kill Richard Platt during the riots on the 2d of December by firing a loaded pistol at him and desperately wounding him.

Permission has been given by the board of Customs, London, for the importation of American flour into the ports of Ireland.

A Paris article of the 28th of December, says: An envoy from the Dey of Egypt is at this time at Merseilles, to receive and superintend at the arrival of the corn which is expected from Egypt and other places.

The poor in France, the beginning of January, were suffering much from the badness of the times, and the scarcity of bread. The King had given 20,000 France. Poor Savary had been condemned to death.

FROM ST. DOMINGO.

By the arrival yesterday morning of the schooner Thomas, capt. Dominick in 30 days from Jacquemel, we learn that three days previous to her sailing, an order was issued from Port-au Prince, by President Petion, to all the commandants of the out ports, to impress for the service of the republic, at the season that could be had. In consequence of this order, six Indigent schooners that lay in Jacquemel were literally stripped of their crews, all of whom were immediately imprisoned to await the arrival of a large ship; formerly the General B own of New-York.

It was understood that Petion was about to issue a New currency, the dollar of which was to be 5 per cent. less than the Spanish milled dollar.

Intelligence from Jamaica, the day previous to sailing, states that a reward of three thousand dollars was offered by the merchants of Kingston for the person of one Johnson, commander of a Venezuelan privateer, in consequence of his depredations committed on the commerce of the Island.

Came home in the Thomas one of the seamen of the schooner Mary Smith of Elizabeth City, N. C. which foundered at sea 45 leagues north of Porto Rico, the crew of which arrived on the south coast of St. Domingo in the boat which also foundered with them near Cape Beata.
In running down the coast they fell in with a raft composed of the spars and lumber of the brig Edwin of this port, which was wrecked on the S. E. part of St. Domingo in December. Captain Swain and crew were in the boats towing the raft down to the city of St. Domingo. There was one other brig cast away on the East end of the Island, her name & where from were not learned.

FROM THE EXCHANGE COFFEE HOUSE BOOKS.

Arrived last evening, brig Dove, W.
Crabtree, jun. master, from Aux Cayes, 17 days to the Cape; cargo coffee, log wood and specie; to Lindsay and Hill.

Bowie and Kurts, Thomas H. Howland, M. Miller, J. and J. Harper.

The Secretary of the Exchange Coffee-House, is indebted to the politeness and attention of Captain Crabtree, for the following information:—

"Experienced very severe gales and boisterous weather in approaching the coast. Sailed in company with schooner Carena, Paddock, for Elizabeth City; parted so in the bite of Leogane, Spoke, going into Aux Cayes, schooner Remittance, 14 days from Baltimore. Two days after leaving Aux Cayes, Cape Ti-beron bearing south, fell in with the U.
States brig Independence, schr Wasp in company; was boarded from the latter. Informed us, there was a wa-between Spain and the United States, and that they were cruising off Cape Maise, and that two days before, to the windward of Aux Cayes, the schooner was boarded by an armed ship and brig (probably Petion's squadron). Same day, saw, but did not speak, the brig Crispin, Keane, for N. York, sailed the day before us. February 15, lat. 34, 45, N.
lon. 72, 60, W. spoke sloop Penobscot-Packet, Hall, 20 days from Bermuda for Washington, N. C. having experienced unusually rough and stormy weather; had been twice knocked down by the sea, ballast shifted, boat stove, & otherwise much shattered in the hull & sails; was in great want of provisions—a high sea running, could not board him until evening, when we supplied him with water, and what other necessities our scanty stock would permit.

"Left at Aux Cayes—sloop Howard and James, Forbes, for N. York, to sail in 6 days; brig Orient, Bates, N. York, 4 days; schooner John London, Newman, for New Orleans, 10 days; brig Lovely Lydia, Mitchell, Philadelphia, 15 days; schr Golden Age, Addleston, Washington, NC. 6 days; brig Venus, Burnet, Norfolk, next day; schooner Dove, Dew, Baltimore, 10 days; brig Seamur, Vickary, discharging, uncertain when to sail. Just arrived, schr Vigilant, from Wilmington, NC. via Curacao, with naval stores, to sail in 3 days; schooner Pegasus, Daley, of Phi-adelphia, sailed for Curacao 16th January.

"Petion's squadron, consisting of a ship of 24 guns, a brig of 14, a schooner and tender, left Aux Cayes on a cruise the 19th January; gave out, they expected & desired a meeting with Chris-tophe's frigate and brig, which was said to have put to sea in pursuit of them.

"Markets extremely dull for American produce; while coffee was becoming very scarce and high.

"It may be a proper subject for enquiry, why, the British trade, in all the Haytian ports, is placed upon so much better footing, than that of the United States?—It is a fact, our vessels pay eleven and half per cent. on the value of their cargoes, while the British are charged but one half that amount."

"No such vessels, recorded in the American navy list; they must, therefore, have really belonged to some other flag."

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

100 N. 10th St.,
Have just received from LEES PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Market Lane, N. York.
A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases extremely desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe headache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or foulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly inoffensive, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebra, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small wax-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tenuis, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of chills"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the lives of the laboring part of our citizens.

James G. Mendenhall and Son take remedy known, and will restore to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases. Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthmatic, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals. (the basis of other lotions) and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurf, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxicating or any other destructive intemperance, the unskillful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad livings, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthma, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth-Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infalible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of ague, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Hahn's true & genuine Gouty Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cases performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.

And for Sale or Exchange

in respect to which the Proprietor desires to be understood.

THE great sales of the Columbian Oil, since it has been brought before the public, prove its intrinsic value, and is a pleasing foreboding of a more extensive circulation.

Many interesting certificates might be furnished, testifying to the great value of the Columbian Oil, but we have preferred giving but few, wishing to rest more on the merits of the medicine, than on the effect of its production by certificates from persons however respectable.

The following are among the complaints to which the Columbian Oil has been found very efficacious, viz. rheumatism, consumption, gout, pains in any part of the body, but more particularly of the back and breast; asthma, phthisis, influenza, colds, coughs, whooping coughs, diseases of the eye and eye lids, toothache, ear ache, and deafness, cholera, cramps, external and internal bruises, sprains and flesh wounds, old sores, ulcers, felons, scalds, burns, mumps, erysipelas or flux, croop, quincy, diarrhoea or lax, summer complaint of children, indigestion, loss of appetite, nervous debility, piles, mercurial diseases, especially in those cases where the system has been charged with mercury for some considerable time, and in those excruciating pains subsequent to its too great use and exposure. Herpes, or diseases of the skin, such as ring worms, tetter, scald head, &c. stiffness of joints and limbs, palsy, ague and fever, cholera morbus, gravel, gleet, obstructed urine, scurvy, and in almost all cases of a general or local nature.

We are aware that in recommending a medicine in so many diseases, the public, especially those who have not used the oil, may be induced to question its virtues; but a disposition of this nature will soon be dissipated, when they are informed that a great proportion of the diseases occurring in those cases where the diseases are materially in their nature, the effects produced are nearly the same, although not on the same principle.
